

LEONARDO DA VINCI FESTIVAL

A city-wide celebration of the recently occurring 500th anniversary of Leonardo da Vinci's birth is planned to acquaint the public with the many sides of the achievement of this Renaissance genius, who anticipated many of today's discoveries. Some of the events planned are listed below.

EXHIBITIONS:

Walters Art Gallery: "The Models of Leonardo's Inventions" --
Sept. 20 - Oct. 18 (Loaned by International Business Machines Corp.)

Enoch Pratt Free Library, Mulberry and Cathedral Streets: Exhibitions of Publications on Leonardo (Cathedral Street Window and Fine Arts Department). A book list will be published for free distribution.

Goucher College, Van Meter Hall, Towson Campus: "Leonardo da Vinci and the Liberal Arts," an exhibition of panels loaned by the Elmer Belt Library of Vinciana, Los Angeles. Opens Sept. 24.

Welch Medical Library, The Johns Hopkins University, 1900 E. Monument St.
"The Anatomical and Scientific Drawings of Leonardo" -- opening Sept 16-30
~~about Oct. 21.~~

LECTURES and TALKS, all open to public without charge:

Sunday, Sept. 27, 3:30 p.m. at The Walters Art Gallery
"The Italy of Leonardo" -- Dr. Theodore Low, Director of
Department of Education, The Walters Art Gallery

Tues., Sept. 29, 8:30 p.m. at The Baltimore Museum of Art
"A Philosophy for the Modern Artist" -- Prof. George Boas,
Chairman of Department of Philosophy, The Johns Hopkins University

Sunday, Oct. 4, 3:30 p.m. at The Walters Art Gallery
"The Drawings of Leonardo" -- Miss Valerie Barroll, Assistant,
Department of Education, The Walters Art Gallery

Tues., Oct. 6, 8:30 p.m. at The Baltimore Museum of Art
"Leonardo -- Man of the Renaissance" -- Prof. Richard Howland,
Chairman of Department of Fine Arts, The Johns Hopkins University

Wed., Oct. 7, 12:30 p.m. at the Enoch Pratt Free Library
"Leonardo, the Scientist" -- Prof. Albert L. Hammond, Department of Philosophy, The Johns Hopkins University

Sunday, Oct. 11, 3:30 p.m. at The Walters Art Gallery
"The Paintings of Leonardo" -- Miss Patricia Cowles, Assistant,
Department of Education, The Walters Art Gallery

Tues., Oct. 13, 8:30 p.m. at The Baltimore Museum of Art
"The Inventions of Leonardo" -- Mr. Raymond Stites, Head of Department of Education, The National Gallery of Art

TELEVISION:

Oct. 14, 8:00 p.m. WAAM, Channel 13
"Leonardo -- Man of Science" -- The Johns Hopkins Science Review

ESSAY CONTEST FOR HIGH SCHOOLS: closes Oct. 9th

Essays to be sent to Leonardo da Vinci Essay Contest, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore 18, Maryland