

From—
FRANC ARNOLD
STEEL PIER
Atlantic City, N. J.

SPOT NEWS SPECIAL TO BALTIMORE EVENING PAPERS

Caption: ROSENTHAL TO IMMORTALIZE MISS AMERICA
Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 22, 1939

Louis Rosenthal, renowned Baltimore sculptor to design a statue of Miss America for the famed Atlantic City Boardwalk.

Rosenthal is shown with Frank Gravatt, owner of the Atlantic City Steel Pier and Major William Casey, City Commissioner of Atlantic City and George Tyson, Director of the Beauty Pageant with a "Living Statue" on the location where the Bronze of Rosenthal's will be erected, the ship deck of the Steel Pier which faces the Boardwalk at Virginia Ave and the "Walk".

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenthal of 4000 Borman Ave. have been the guests at the Traymore Hotel of Frank Gravatt, Rosenthal's studio is located at 401 North Charles Street here.

Left to right: Frank Gravatt, Louis Rosenthal, Miss Jane Dix Dyhle, (Living Statue), Major Wm. Casey and George Tyson.

.....FA.....

THANKS